

Service Learning Fellows teach students and faculty about the benefits of service learning by incorporating community service into the academic curriculum by creating engaging presentations for classrooms and supplementing community service with thought-provoking reflections.

Our mission statement: Service Learning Fellows' mission is to encourage local community involvement and awareness of social issues.

As a Service Learning Fellow you will have the following responsibilities...

- research and maintain relationships with Gainesville non-profit organizations
- develop presentations and reflections catering to specific classes in order to present about Service Learning
- serve as site leader for classes during service opportunities
- come to biweekly meetings on Thursdays at 6:30pm and attend all trainings
- be involved in Center for Leadership and Service activities
