

Want an overseas internship for the summer?
Can't afford to work for free?

Global Horizon Project, Inc.

Announces the

2007 Summer Sponsorship Award

You find the internship, and we'll help you finance the experience!

- Award: $1000-4000 (depending on nature of applicant's internship opportunity)
- Eligibility: College students of color returning to full-time status in the subsequent fall
- Application Deadlines: Application due Dec. 31; Internship acceptance confirmation by Apr. 15th

Not sure where to begin looking for an overseas summer internship? Visit www.gbproject.org to get started! You can also download the the 2007 Summer Sponsorship Award application, as well as learn more about the Global Horizon Project (GHP). GHP, the newest name in minority youth development and empowerment, is a non-profit organization dedicated to encouraging internationalism as a career theme to college students of color, with particular emphasis on outreach to Latino, Native and African Americans. We emphasize careers in finance, non-profit management, consulting, law, marketing and journalism in our work.

GHP. Moving students toward a global horizon.

Want an overseas internship for the summer?
Can't afford to work for free?

Global Horizon Project, Inc.

Announces the

2006 Summer Sponsorship Award

You find the internship, and we'll help you finance the experience!

- Award: $1000-4000
(depending on nature of applicant's internship opportunity)
- Eligibility: Latino, Native and African American college students returning to full-time status in the fall
- Application Deadlines: Application due Dec. 31; Internship acceptance confirmation by Mar. 31st

Not sure where to begin looking for an overseas summer internship? Visit www.gbproject.org to get started! You can also download the the 2006 Summer Sponsorship Award application, as well as learn more about the Global Horizon Project (GHP). GHP, the newest name in minority youth development and empowerment, is a non-profit organization dedicated to encouraging internationalism as a career theme to college students of color, with particular emphasis on outreach to Latino, Native and African Americans. We emphasize careers in finance, non-profit management, consulting, law, marketing and journalism in our work.

GHP. Moving students toward a global h