A course designed to aid in your successful transition to the University of Florida.

Class Outcomes and Goals

Connect and integrate to the University of Florida experience
Develop a foundation for learning and leadership within and beyond the college experience.
Promote self-discovery, understanding, and well-being in a diverse and global society.

Portfolio
Worth 100 total points (20% of your grade): Due on August 7
Include the following: Powerpoint presentation documenting your first semester at UF, Updated Resume, Campus Resource & Student Organization Assignments, 2 Reflection Papers, Letter to Yourself

Video Project
Worth 100 total points (20% of your grade): Due on August 5
This is a group project with 3 to 4 members per group. At UF, we have many great traditions and we want you to experience many of them to immerse yourself in the culture. Your group will create a video displaying your favorite F-Book traditions, as well as potentially add some of your own!

Attendance Policy
Worth 100 total points (20% of your grade): Ongoing
To get the most out of this class, attending and participating is vital. We want to create an engaging atmosphere that is different from other classes that you are taking. You will get out of this class what you put into it! One free missed absence; 10 points off for each additional.

“You Pick Two”
Worth 50 points (10% of your grade): Due August 5
Build your experience by choosing two of the following events to attend: Workshop Success Series, Common Reading Program Event, Gatormania, or other approved event as mentioned throughout the course.
