Incident Reports involving alleged violations of Organization Policy or Code of Conduct may be generated from multiple sources including but not limited to students, UPD, GPD, ASO, University Housing, University Departments, community members or community agencies.

Based on available preliminary information, any case that is likely to result in the assignment of a disciplinary sanction of suspension, dismissal, or expulsion will result in a formal hearing.

---

University of Florida
STUDENT CONDUCT PROCESS
(University Rules Violations)

REVISED 1/09

Incident reported to SCCR

Director of SCCR reviews incident report

CASE CLOSED
Not enough information to warrant an investigation

Decision to Investigate or Charge

YES

Charge Letter sent out – Schedule appointments

Student meets with SCCR staff to discuss allegations (Informational Meeting)

Informal hearing with SCCR Staff

Decision is made regarding case

Dean of Students makes decision regarding case

APPEAL
Heard by VP of Student Affairs

Meet with Director for SCCR or designee

Witnesses contacted – Investigation

Formal Hearing

Recommendation sent to Dean of Students

Dean of Students makes decision regarding case

APPEAL
Heard by Dean of Students

Formal Hearing

Decision is made regarding case

Informal hearing with SCCR Staff

Decision is made regarding case

Dean of Students makes decision regarding case

APPEAL
Heard by Dean of Students

---

*Incident Reports involving alleged violations of Organization Policy or Code of Conduct may be generated from multiple sources including but not limited to students, UPD, GPD, ASO, University Housing, University Departments, community members or community agencies.

Based on available preliminary information, any case that is likely to result in the assignment of a disciplinary sanction of suspension, dismissal, or expulsion will result in a formal hearing.